

Frank Turner - Long Live The Queen

Tom: A
Intro: A

I was sipping on a Whiskey when I got the call
Gbm
Yeah my friend Lex was lying in the hospital
Bm
She'd been pretty sick for about half a year
E
But it seems liked this time the end was drawing near

A
So dropped my plans and jumped the next London train
Gbm
I found her laid up and in a lot of pain
Bm
Her eyes met mine and then I understood
E E7
That the weather forecast wasn't looking too good
A
So I sat and spun her stories for a little while
Gbm
Tried to raise her mood and tried to raise a smile
Bm Bm
But she silenced all my rambling with a shake of her head
E E7
Drew me close and listen this is what she said now

Refrão:
A Gbm Bm
"You'll live to dance another day,
E E7
it's just now you'll have to dance, for the two of us,
A Gbm Bm
so stop looking so damn depressed
E
and sing with all your heart that the Queen is dead"

A
Yeah she told me she was sick of all the hospital food
Gbm
And of doctors, distant relatives, draining her blood
Bm Bm
She said "I know I'm dying, but I'm not finished just yet,
E E7
I am dying for a drink and for a cigarette"
A
So we hatched a plan to book ourselves a cheap hotel
Gbm
In the centre of the City and to raise some Hell
Bm E
They waste to all the clubs and then when everyone else is long asleep

E7
We know we're good and done

Refrão:

anymore
D A
The Queen is dead,
Bm Bm A E
and the last of the great has finally gone to bed

Verso:
A
Well I was working on some words when Sarah called me up
Gbm
She said that Lex had gone asleep and wasn't waking up
Bm
And even though I knew that there was nothing to be done
E E7
I felt bad for not being there and now, well, she was gone
A
So I tried to think what Lex would want me to do
Gbm
At times like this when I was feeling blue
Bm
So I gathered up some friends to spread the sad sad news
E E7
And we headed to the City for a drink or two
And we sang

Refrão:
