

Freya Skye - Petty

tom:

G

You had it out from the moment you met me
 Runnin' your mouth, aren't you tired already?
 You let me down, so I'll let you down gently
 We could be friends, but you're way too

Calculated, you move your lips and
 It sounds automated (automated)

Oh, you're a queen bee without the hive, now it's comin' to light

Two-faced, you sing my songs but call them overrated
 Oh, damn, I'm so done with your lies
 No tears fall when you cry (ah)

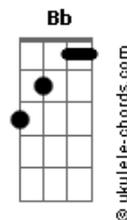

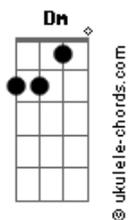

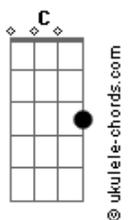

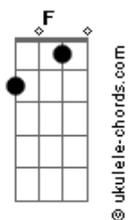

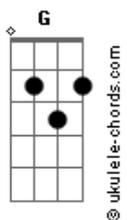

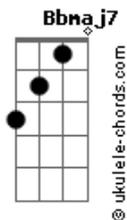

This is a losing game, and frankly I don't wanna play
 Clearly you have somethin' to say, then say, say it right now

You had it out from the moment you met me
 Runnin' your mouth, aren't you tired already?
 You let me down, so I'll let you down gently
 We could be friends, but you're way too (petty)

Petty-etty, petty-etty, way too
 Petty-etty, petty-etty, you're way too
 Petty-etty, petty-etty
 Oh, we could be friends, but you're way too

Hot-headed, one thing goes wrong, you act like Armageddon
 Oh, I keep dodgin' all the mines, pretendin' like it's fine

Acordes

(But it's not, you're a lot) (ah)

This is a losing game, and frankly I don't wanna play
 Clearly you have somethin' to say, then say, say it right now

You had it out from the moment you met me
 Runnin' your mouth, aren't you tired already?
 You let me down, so I'll let you down gently
 We could be friends, but you're way too (petty)

Petty-etty, petty-etty, way too
 Petty-etty, petty-etty, you're way too
 Petty-etty, petty-etty
 Oh, we could be friends, but you're way too

Pretty to be actin' like that
 Smilin' in my face all while the knife is in my back
 I'll watch you build a house of cards and let it all collapse
 I'll sit back and laugh, I'll sit back and laugh

You had it out from the moment you met me
 Runnin' your mouth, aren't you tired already?
 You let me down, so I'll let you down gently
 We could be friends, but you're way too (petty)

Petty-etty, petty-etty, way too
 Petty-etty, petty-etty, you're way too
 Petty-etty, petty-etty
 Oh, we could be friends, but you're way too
