

Frida - The Sun Will Shine Again

tom:
 Inside my mind
 The world is watching over
 My every move
 Still I am here alone
 Uncried tears
 They will only fuel my fears
 Now, it seems they're falling
 And I feel release
 An inner peace
 And realize
 The sun will shine again
 Though this time
 Feels like its never ending
 Time will help and heal

These moments will pass
 So raise your head
 And take up your heart
 Hold it closely to you
 And the tears and pain
 Will fall away
 Like blossom snow
 You will know
 That you can be your own best friend
 The sun will shine again
 Only you can know
 How unravelled you'd become Hold on tight
 And let it go
 The sun will shine again
