

Gabriel Gonçalves - Freedom's Gamble

tom:
B
Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare to own

Abm
 They say I should settle down, get an eight-to-six
Abm
 I'd rather chase the sun, feel the warm and the breeze
Db
 Oh, they call it reckless, I call it being free
Abm
 While they're stuck in traffic, I'm flying with ease

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare to own

Abm
 They build their little walls, trade their dreams for a wage
Abm
 I burn a million rules, write my story on the page
Db
 They measure every step by decisions never made
Abm
 I walk the open road, where no fate is laid

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare to own

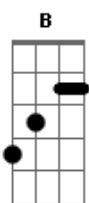

[Solo Organ]

Abm Abm Db Abm
Eb Db E Gb Abm

Abm Abm Db Abm
Eb Db E Gb Abm

Db Abm
 Go on, build your castles with no fear and stack your gold

Db Abm
 Lock your doors and windows, you're doing what you're told
E B
 Bow to the clock, worship the grind

Sell your soul one paycheck at a time
Gb Eb
 But freedom's gamble fades while you wait in line

Db B Gb

[Solo Guitar]

Abm Abm Db Abm
Eb Db E Gb Abm

Abm Abm Db Abm

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare to own

They fear the rolling dice, scared to lose what they save
 I'd rather bet it all than live life in a cage
 They fear the great unknown, so they laugh and they doubt
 But I was born to live and step it out

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare to own

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare to own

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare to play alone

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that few people dare truly own

Eb Db E Gb Abm
 Because freedom is a game that many people will never know
