

Gabriel Gonçalves - Regrets

tom:

Intro: Em

Em

I was young and foolish, I didn't know what I had

Em

I thought the grass was greener, I didn't listen my dad

C

Now, I'm older and wiser, but it's too late to change

C

All those mistakes I made, now they're in my range

Em

I burned some bridges, and I lost some friends

Em

I hurt some people and I can't make amends

C

But I've learned my lesson, the hard way it seem

C

And I'll keep on trying, to chase away my dreams

[Refrão]

G

Regrets, I've got a few

A

But the past is gone, and I can't turn back time

A

Living with regrets is the hardest kind of crime

Em

Sometimes I wonder, what life would be like

Em

If I had done things different, if I had lived right

C

But then I realize, that's not the way to go

C

I'll take what I have got, and try to make it glow

Em

Though life can be tough, I keep putting up a fight

Em

We must not give up, but stay upright

C

We'll face the challenges, and let our spirits ignite

C

And shine like stars, with all our might

G

Regrets, I've got a few

A

But the past is gone and I can't turn back time

A

Living with regrets is the hardest kind of crime

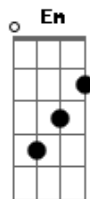

A

Living with regrets is the hardest kind of crime

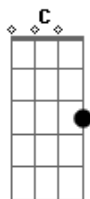

C

Living with regrets is a waste of time
