Tom: E

Intro: Dbm A E A

A

Every time I see your face

I'm lost for words I don't know what to say

You're smiling at me like a (wolf?)

I close my eyes as my skin crawls away

Dbm

You go keep on making lists

I'll be happy making my mistakes

You'll be ticking off your boxes

I will be busy planning my escape

Dbm

I won't stay but I can't leave

Some twisted sense of loyalty

And you make me love the things I hate

Keep pushing me pushing me keep pushing me away

Please keep pushing me pushing me keep pushing me away

You're stripping wings off butterflies just to hide the pain you feel inside keep telling yourself you're in charge telling yourself it will be alright

Dbm

When you stay happy in the dark

I'll be drifting out towards light

When you start to speak your mind

I will just turn around and roll my eyes

Dbm

I won't stay but I can't leave

Some twisted sense of loyalty

And you make me love the things I hate

Keep pushing me pushing me keep pushing me away

Gbm A

Stop breathing down my neck

Do you understand me yet?

Sometimes in life you have to lose

I'm living life for me not for you (ohhhh)
