

Galantis - No Money

tom:

Sorry I ain't got no money

I'm not trying to be funny but I left it all at home today

You can call me what you wanna I ain't giving you a dollar

This time I ain't gonna run away

You might knock me down, you might knock me down

But I will get back up again

You can call it how you wanna, I ain't giving you a dollar

This time I ain't gonna run away, run away, run away
