Tom: C
Intro: C Am F G

verse 1
C Am F G
Just after the storm breaks, with the perfect amount of light,
C Am F G
You can catch a glimpse of magic, if the timing is right.
C Am F G
Rainbows are improbable, beautiful, and rare,
C Am F G
But so are you, and so is this, the love that we share.

Pre-Chorus:
F C D
Too vast to hold, and too small to name, it's no wonder why
F G
You have to stand between the rain and the sun to see a rainbow in the sky.
F C
All the things that had to go right, all the things that had to go wrong
Bb G
That lead us to the place where we were going all along.

Chorus:
F G
Right now they fall away,
Am D
Right now it's just us two,
F
Right now we make a promise:
G C Am - F - G
If you do, then I do too.

Verse 2:
C Am F G
Don't know how we found it, but we did somehow.
C Am F G
All the moments of our lives, were leading up to now.
C Am F G
I used to feel uncertain, but now I realize
C Am F G
When I wanna see my future, I just look into your eyes.

Pre-Chorus:
F C D
Too vast to hold, and too small to name, it's no wonder why
F G

You have to stand between the rain and the sun to see a rainbow in the sky.
F C
All the things that make you - you, all the things that make me - me,
Bb G
That lead us to the place where we were always meant to be.
Chorus:
F G
Right now they fall away,
Am D
Right now it's just us two,
F
Right now we make a promise:
G F
If you do, then I do too.

So to all of you detractors who don't know you've lost the fight,

To all of you in the darkness, we're here turning on the lights.
F F
Now I stand with you for the world to see,

My love, my dreams, and me.
F G C
My love, my dreams, and me.
Chorus:
F G
Right now they fall away,

Right now it's just us two,
