Another bridge goes down

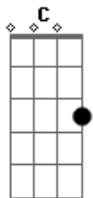

last night we talked of old times
Families & home towns
She wondered if we'd both agree
On where we'd settle down
And I told her that we'd cross that bridge
Whenever it arrived
Now thru the flames I see her standin on the other side

Like ashes on the water I drift away in sorrow

Knowing that the day my lesson's finally learned

I'll be standin at a river staring out across

And the bridge I need to get there
F G Am D
Will be a bridge that I have burned
