Garth Brooks - Why Ain't I Running

Tom: A ADAD ADAD I can hear that highway calling D Α As I watch the sunrise crawling across her shoulder This is usually goodbye Α D And yet those words I just can't find here as I hold her D She's like no other woman E That I have ever known before D And it ain't me to see the morning sun E F From this side of the door Α D Gbm E Why ain't running, why ain't gone A D A D Gbm E How does she hold me without holding on D In love or a fight, she's stronger than strong Gbm E Something's not right in there ain't nothing wrong Ğbm D Е It's got me wondering, why ain't running A A Gbm E Why ain't I gone All those worlds I left behind me D Α D Praying they would never find me and my freedom Α But if they stood right here beside me D Δ D They would never recognize me for all that she's done

Once happiness was only

Acordes

E Whenever I was on my own D So now why do I feel lonely E Any time that I'm alone A D Gbm E Why ain't running, why ain't gone A D Gbm E How does she hold me without holding on D In love or a fight, she's stronger than strong Gbm Something's not right in there ain't nothing wrong Gbm D E It's got me wondering, why ain't running Gbm D A E Gbm D A E D No, they've never built a wall that high F Or made a chain that strong D And God ain't never made a place F F I felt like I belong Α D Gbm E Why ain't running, why ain't gone Gbm E Α D How does she hold me without holding on D In love or a fight, she's stronger than strong Gbm Something's not right in there ain't nothing wrong Gbm D E It's got me wondering, why ain't running A A Gbm E E Why ain't I gone

A A Gbm E A A Gbm E