

George Benson - Give me the Night

```
Tom: Gb
                                                        so give me the night.
                                                                                       Give me the night.
                       Cm7 Db7
              Bbm7
                                                                 Abm7 Gb
          Fm7
When ever dark is fallin',

Bbm7
                                                        So come on out tonight
                                                           Ebm7
                                                        and we'll lead the others

Abm7 Gb Ebm7 Db
you know the spirit of the party
        Cm7 Db7
starts to come alive.
                                                        on a ride through paradise.
        Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
Until the day is dawnin', Bbm7
                                                              Abm7
                                                        And if you feel all right
                                                           Ebm7 Db
you can throw out all the blues then we can be lovers 'cause I see that Cm7 Db7
                                                        Gb E7 Db7
and hit the city lights.
                                                        starlight look in your eyes.
           Bbm7
                                                                 E7
'Cause there's music in the air,
                                                        Well, don't you know we can fly?
         Eb7
                                                                       Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
                                                                                                   Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7
and lots of lovin' ev'rywhere,
         Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
                                              Fm7 Bbm7 so give me the night.
                                                                                   Give me the night.
                                Give me the night.
                                                               Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
so give me the night.
                                                        And if we stay together,
          Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
                                                                    Fm7
You need the evenin' action,
                                                        we'll feel the rhythm of the evening
        Fm7
                                                              Cm7 Db7
                                                        takin' us up high.
a place to dine, a glass of wine, Cm7 Db7
                                                            Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
                                                        Never mind the weather.
a little late romance.
     Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
                                                               Fm7 Bbm7
We'll be dancin' in the street
                                                               Cm7 Db7
we'll see the people of the world
                                                        until the morning light.
     Cm7 Db7
                                                                  Bbm7
comin' out to dance.
                                                        'Cause there's music in the air
            Bbm7
                                                                Eb7
'Cause there's music in the air
                                                        and lots of lovin' ev'rywhere.
         Eb7
                                                                        Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
                                                                                                       Fm7 Bbm7
and lots of lovin' ev'rywhere
                                                        Cm7 Dh7
                Fm7 Bbm7 Cm7 Db7
                                             Fm7 Bbm7 so give me the night.
                                                                                       Give me the night.
Cm7 Db7
```

