                                                                       I don't want to do it.
      Looking back upon my youth--
                                                                       I don't want to see you cry.
      The time I always knew the truth.
                                                                       To go back
      I don't want to do it.
                                                                       On the hill beside the track
      I don't want to say goodbye.
                                                                       And try to concentrate.
      To go back in the yard and play--
                                                                       All in all the places that I want to be,
      If I could only have another day.
                                                                       No, it shows you that I could not wait.
      I don't want to do it.
      I don't want to make you cry.
                                                                       So come back into my arms again.

                                                                       This love of ours, it has no end.
      To go back
      On the hill beside the track
                                                                       I don't want to do it.
                  Ab
      And try to concentrate.
                                                                       I don't want to say goodbye.
      All in all the places that I want to be,
                                                                       I don't want to do it.
      No, it shows you that I could not wait.
                                                                       I don't want to say goodbye.
      So come back into my arms again.
                                                                       I don't want to do it.
      This love of ours, it has no end.
