Somebody brought the juicer I thought I'd take a sip
    Gm                 Ab           Eb
Came off the rails so crazy my senses took a dip
     Cm         Eb            Bb           Eb
Before the bottle hit the floor and I'd had time to think
        Gm               Ab           C (8th fret)
I was blinded by desire the elephant turned pink

And the rest is simply shady it's all been done before
        Fm          Eb           G / Cm /
But it doesn't make life easy that's for sure
         Fm          Eb           Ab          Eb
You may think about a lady cause yourself a minor war
         Fm       Eb      G / / / / / / /
And your life won't be so easy anymore

       Cm          Eb       Bb        Eb
No sooner had I sown it when I began to reap

I was torn from shallow water and plunged into the deep
     Cm         Eb          Bb         Eb
And as I started drowning I clung onto a straw

C (8th fret)
    That somehow kept me floating while my madness craved for more
