

George Harrison - While My Guitar Gently Weeps

```
With every mistake we must surely be learning \ensuremath{\mathsf{Am}} \ensuremath{\mathsf{G}} \ensuremath{\mathsf{C}} \ensuremath{\mathsf{E}} tom:
                  Am
                          С
                                       D
                                                                 Dm
                                                                          Still my guitar gently weeps
I look at you all see the love there that's sleeping
\mathsf{Am} \qquad \mathsf{G} \qquad \mathsf{D} \quad \mathsf{E}
                                                                                        Dbm Gbm
While my guitar gently weeps
Am C D
                                                                          I don't know how you were diverted
I look at the floor and I see it needs sweeping Am G C E
                                                                         You were perverted too
                                                                                     Dbm Gbm
                                                                         I don't know how you were inverted Bm E E7
Still my guitar gently weeps
                                                                         No one alerted you
                               Dbm Bm
               Dbm Gbm
I don't know why nobody told you how to unfold your love
A Dbm Gbm Dbm
I don't know how someone controlled you
                                                                         I look at you all see the love there that's sleeping Am G D E
While my guitar gently weeps
                 E E7
They bought and sold you
                                                                          Am C D Dm
Look at you all
Am G
                                                                          Still my guitar gently weeps
Acordes
```

