

Gert Taberner - In Need

Tom: C
Intro: Dm F C G

No I can't quite conceive what all of this means
I might be wrong but darling can't you see
This bond between us seems so special to me
Some kind of clear unspoken chemistry

The message you're sending is mixed
I'm broken, I need to be fixed
I'm in need of attention
I'm in need of love

She's the rope that holds me
Yes I know she knows me well enough
She's the fire that blinds me
Leaves my fears behind me for a while
( Dm F C G )

No I can't quite describe what's before my eyes

It's something you can't see that I can't hide
I try to avoid all these thoughts inside
When you're the only thing that's on my mind

The message you're sending is mixed
I'm broken, I need to be fixed
I'm in need of attention
I'm in need of love

She's the rope that holds me
Yes I know she knows me well enough woooh
She's the fire that blinds me
Leaves my fears behind me for a while woooh
( Dm F C G )

She's the rope that holds me
Yes I know she knows me well enough woooh
She's the fire that blinds me
Leaves my fears behind me for a while
