

Giant Rooks - The Future Is Cancelled

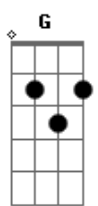

tom:
 I've got a ticket
 To get me out of here
 Might just be minutes
 Before I disappear, oh, no
 I'm sorry to say
 The future is cancelled
 I spend all my days
 Collecting your memories
 I'll be on my way to see you again
 I just wanna rest inside your hands
 Somebody take this pain away
 You had to leave, I chose to stay
 I'd give a lifetime
 For just one day with you
 But in the mirror
 It's still me but minus you, oh, no
 I'm sorry to say
 The future is cancelled
 I spend all my days

Collecting your memories
 I'll be on my way to see you again
 I just wanna rest inside your hands
 Somebody take this pain away
 You had to leave, I chose to stay
 You and me down by the station
 Waiting for the rain to fall
 Even then, you never told me
 I should have returned your call
 Been caught up in my own business
 You been so god damn alone
 Hoping back through all these pictures
 I just wanna take you (home)
 The future is cancelled
 I spend all my days
 Collecting your memories
 I'll be on my way to see you again
 I just wanna rest inside your hands
 Somebody take this pain away
 You had to leave, I chose to stay
