Girl In Red - Bad Idea!

                          tom:
                    E

             E                Abm
It was a bad idea calling you up
             E                Abm
Was such a bad idea 'cause now I'm even more lost
          E               Abm
It was a bad idea to think you were the one
             E                Abm
Was such a bad idea 'cause now everything's wrong

You put your hands under my shirt
  Abm
Undid my bra and said these words
E                              Abm
"Darling, you're so pretty, it hurts"
You pushed me up against my wall
Abm
Threw my clothes down on the floor
E                         Abm
"Darling, are you ready for more?"

          E         Abm
It was a bad idea calling you up
             E            Abm
Was such a bad idea, I'm totally fucked
          E               Abm
It was a bad idea to think I could stop
             E            Abm
Was such a bad idea, I can't get enough

          E         Abm
It was a bad idea meeting you so late
             E                Abm
Was such a bad idea 'cause I can't think straight
          E               Abm
It was a bad idea to bring you back home
             E            Abm
Was such a bad idea, I need to be alone

You put your hands under my shirt
  Abm
