

Giulia Araujo - Remember Me

tom:

[Solo]

Remember me of never coming back here
Until this feeling completely disappears
Until I have again what you took from me, took from me
You record every scene like a psycho
Take my pieces and then, watch me recycle
So you may once again throw me into the fire, the fire
Ooh, it burns
Ooh, it burns

Remember me when time makes your skin melt

So maybe you'll understand what my heart felt Awkward, everyday living in hell, living in hell
Don't cry when I'm gone, waited for so long
And you tell me something I already know
But you know, life goes on
Ooh, it goes
Ooh, it goes
Surrounded by eighties and latest
Watching old men and old ladies
This place looks so amazing
But sometimes I forget this
