C                              C7M
When your sparkle evades your soul
F                            Cmaj9
I'll be at your side to console
C                                C7M
When you're standing on the window ledge
F                              Cmaj9
I'll talk you back from the edge
C                                C7M
i will turn... i will turn your tide
F                             Cmaj9
Be your shepard and your guide
C                                                  C7M
When your lost in the deep and darkest place around
F                                         Cmaj9
May my words walk you home safe and sound

C                                                    C7M
When you say that I'm no good and you feel like walking
F
Cmaj9
I need to make sure you know thats just the Prescription talking
C                                                     C7M
When your feet decide to walk you on the wayward side
F                                          Cmaj9
Up upon the stairs and down the downward slide

C                          C7M
I will, I will turn your tide
F                                  Cmaj9
Do all that I can to heal you inside
C                               C7M
I'll be the angel on your shoulder
F                                          Cmaj9
My name is Geraldine, I'm your social worker
