

Glee - A Thousand Years

```
Darling don't be afraid
                           tom:
                                                                    Eb Eb Eb
           [Primeira Parte]
                                                             For a thou____sand years
Ebadd9
                                                             I'll love you for a thousand more
Heart beats fast
            Bb
Colors and promises
                                                             And all along I believed
                                                                     Fadd9
How to be brave
                                                             I would find you
                Bb
                     Ebadd9
         F
How can I love when I'm afraid to fall
                                                             Time has brought your heart to me
                 Bb
But watching you stand alone
                                                             For a thou____sand years
          Gm
All of my doubt
                                                             I love you for a thousand more
        F Bb
Suddenly goes away somehow
    Cm Gm Fadd9
                                                             [Ponte]
One step clo_ser
                                                             Bb
                                                             0h
[Refrão]
                                                             Uh uh uh uh uh
                                                             Eb
                                                             Uh
Darling don't be afraid
                                                                    F
                                                             Uh uh uh uh
For a thou__sand years
                                                                         Gm Fadd9
                                                                One step clo__ser
I'll love you for a thousand more
                                                                  Cm Gm
                                                                One step clo_ser
[Segunda Parte]
                                                             [Refrão]
Ebadd9
  Time stands still
                                                             And I have died everyday
        Bb
Beauty in all she is
                                                                     Fadd9
                                                             Waiting for you
I will be brave
                                                             Gm
          Fadd9
                                                             Darling don't be afraid
                   Bb Ebadd9
I will not let anything take away
                                                                    Eb Eb Eb
                   Bb
What's standing in front of me
                                                             For a thou____sand years
      Gm
Every breath
                                                             I'll love you for a thousand more
      Fadd9
               Bb
Every hour has come to this
    Cm Gm Fadd9
                                                             And all along I believed
                                                                     Fadd9
One step clo_ser
                                                             I would find you
[Refrão]
                                                             Time has brought your heart to me
And I have died everyday
                                                                             Fb
                                                                    Eb Eb
        Fadd9
                                                             For a thou____sand years
                                                                                     F Ebadd9
Waiting for you
```

Acordes

I love you for a thousand more