                                                                                      Bbm Eb7 G#7M
                                                            Soften my dreams with your sigh
If you do, I think that maybe I'll just lay
                                                                       F7
                                                                                      Bbm7
                                                                                                   Eb7 G#7M
Me down and cry for a hundred years
                                                            After you've loved me for a million years

                                                                          Bbm7
                                                                                     G#7M
Don't pull your love out on me, honey
                                                            Then if it don't work out
                                                                         Bbm7
Take my heart, my soul, my money
                                                            Then if it don't work out

                                                                          Bbm7
But don't leave me here to drown in my own tears
                                                            Then you can tell me goodbye

You say you're gonna leave
                                                            Don't pull your love out on me baby
Gonna take that big white bird
                                                            If you do then I think that maybe
