

Goldfinger - Kids Are Alright

```
Tom: A Intro: E
Verse E A B (the first one starts on the A )
Pre Chorus Gbm B A E
                                                                Verse "i don't mind...bells chime...."
Chorus E B
bridge B A
                                                                                       (The E can also be)
use distorted power chords on everything but the verse, use Prechorus "and i know if i dont, i'll go out of my mind"
ska chords
and for punkrockers that don't know how to figure out where Gb
                                                                                                       (the Gb can also be)
is, here's a tab
Intro: E
                                                                Chorus "the kids are alriiiiiiight"
|----|
i - - - - - i j - - 9~ - - - j
|--9~---|
                                                                Bridge "i know if i go,...."
```

Acordes

