G
You changed my face

I think I like it better now

It doesn't matter anyhow

Cuz that's the way it is

G
You said hello

Where the hell you been?

I said I feel like I been off to war

And I may never be the same again

G D
I made my bed, but now I can't sleep at night

Cuz you're tossing and turning, you know, you know it ain't right

G D
I'd love to beg, see, but I'm just too proud

C G D
And I don't even know what to say, so I'm thinking out loud

G D
And when you dream, seventeen

I ain't there, so I don't care

G D
Cuz in all my dreams, I'm twenty-three

C G D C
And she's the girl right next to me

C G D C
See that girl right next to me

G D
I lie in my bed, you're running through my head

C D G
Going over and over and over the things that you said

I'm caught in the trap, I'd run like hell right back to you

Cuz I'm sober with you and you know it beats drinking alone
