

Gordon Lightfoot - Looking At The Rain

tom:

G

Looking at the rain - feeling the pain
 Of love lost running though - my brain
 Looking at the wind - watching it spin
 The leaves along the street - you win
 Waiting for a line to fall
 Telling you it's all a - big mistake

G C

Looking at a face - so out of place
 Inside that picture frame - of lace
 Looking at the wall - wishing you'd call
 And tell me you're okay - that's all
 Wishing this was all a dream
 And I'd find you sleeping when I wake

Looking at the trees - so ill at ease
 From sleep that will not come - that's me
 Looking at the dawn - knowing it's wrong

Still thinking of your love - that's gone
 Wishing this was all a dream
 And I'd find you sleeping when I wake

G C

Looking at the door - walking the floor
 And wondering where you are - once more
 Looking at the sky - wondering why
 I'd let you slip away - I cry
 Wishing this was all a dream
 And I'd find you sleeping when I wake

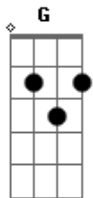

G C

Looking at the rain - feeling the pain
 Of love lost running though - my brain
 Looking at the wind - watching it spin
 The leaves along the street - you win
 Waiting for a line to fall

C

But the words won't come
 I know I'd - feel the same
 Looking at the rain
