

Gorillaz - Demon Days

Tom: D

Well these demon days are so cold inside
 So high to live and so to survive
 You can't even trust the air you breath
 Co's mother earth has a soul to live

When the lies became reality
 You love yourself because it's easy
 Pick yourself it's a brand new day
 So turn yourself round, don't burn yourself, turn yourself
 Turn yourself around to the soul
 To the soul...
