

Gracie Abrams - Death Wish

tom:
A

F
My love, you love your time machine

D
Your power trips and diamond rings

The walls you built on teenage dreams

C
The well you dug for sinking things

B
Yours words to kill are evergreen

B
So you must not feel anything at all

F
But how'd you get so bulletproof?

D
You trade your time for inside truths

D
You trade your time for any clue

C
Of what to do or not to do

C
Hate to say it's nothing new

Bb
Aside from those few girls you keep around

F
But how will it end? How long will you give me? D

C
Till you twist the knife with a smile while you kill me Bb

Bb
And you ask me to dance if there's someone around F

F
You don't look the same when I look at you now

D C Bb

F
Well, honey pie, you're haunting me

D
I fell for your faux fantasy

D
You poured the wine, there's poison in it

C
You disregard my disposition

C
Truth is in the subtle things Bb

Your eggshell floor is splintering now, mm F

And it freaks me out I'm old enough

D
To know you as a gateway drug

D
You're everything I'll never be

C
You live to look for enemies

C
I have to bet that's lonely Bb

Bb
Could leave you with an empty house

F
But how will it end? How long will you give me? D

D
Till you twist the knife with a smile while you kill me C

Bb
Then you ask me to dance if there's someone around F

F
You don't look the same when I look at you now

D
And I used to pretend that it didn't feel evil C

C
Your light of a million suns burns through people

And bridges and cities Bb

Bb
Till ash covers ground F

F
A breath of your air is a death wish D

D
And you're forcing my hand, but I'm a drop in your ocean C

C
I ruined your plans of some grand self-promotion Bb

Bb
The second you figured that I figured you out F

F
Now you look away when I look at you now

D
Oh, look at you now C

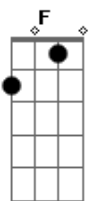

C
Well, look at you Bb

Bb
Look at you
