

Gracie Abrams - Good Luck Charlie

```
[Segunda Parte]
                                                    tom:
\begin{picture}(60,0) \put(0,0){\line(0,0){100}} \put(0,0){\line(0,0){100
                                                                                                                                                                                                            Now when you fly over Michigan I'll bet you see her
                                                                                                                                                                                                            Right on the wing of the plane and the lakes and the sky
                          [Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                            You can go home at night and you might really not need her
You keep a picture of Audrey inside of your wallet
                                                                                                                                                                                                            C Em Am
But you feel her everywhere, she is the love of your life
Went for a drink and the bartender thought she was dead
                                                                                                                                                                                                      F [Pré-Refrão]
He made you live out that nightmare and you nearly lost it
C Em Am
You made a joke and you watched it go over his head
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                            Now it all comes down to you
 [Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                             [Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                            C G
Good luck, Charlie
                                                                  Am F
And now it all comes down to you
     G Am F
                                                                                                                                                                                                             I hope you're happy
It all comes down to you
                                                                                                                                                                                                             This isn't what you wanted
[Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                            You know that it's her or nothin'
Good luck, Charlie
                                                                                                                                                                                                             [Final]
I hope you're happy
This isn't what you wanted
                                                                                                                                                                                                             Good luck, Charlie
                                                                                                                                                                                                            C G
I hope you're happy
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Am F
                                                                                                                    Am F
You know that it's her or nothin'
Acordes
```