You come around every now and then
Your clothes are different but you're still the same

Scumbag on a mission

You're telling me that it's been awhile
Shitting your greed and a brand new lie

Scumbag with permission

Never thought I'd see the likes of you around this place

Ab Gb
What's the special occasion did you run out of friends

Here you are coming around again
And things are different but you still pretend

You've got a reason to come here
Scumbag with ambition

And now you're telling me that things have changed
And you'll be leaving in a couple days

You're gonan change the world someday
Scumbag with a vision
