

Gregory Alan Isakov - Evelyn

tom:

Intro: C

F C
All the tables nice and clean
F C
Evelyn's asleep
F C
On the grave yard shift again
G
Selling gasoline
F C
And there's kids smoking on south first
F Am G
See high-school was just a blur, to her
C G G G
And everything just found their place it seemed

Am F C G
There's an old folk song on the radio
Am F C G
Sounding thin and dark and haunted
Am F C G G G
There's a bag of weed in the back beneath the books
Am F C G
And she can't stand the sight of this cul-de-sac
Am F C G
Like an old crow, king of the lamp-post
Am F C G
And this window hasn't been this clean since it last rained
(C)

F C
Well she pictures up a different day
F C
Driving west to east L.A

F C
And there ain't no sign of a dime, but hey
G G G
Anyone can dream anyone can dream

[Refrão]

C F Am G
And all the college girls come in when the bars let out and they're hungry
C F Am G
Making such a mess, Evelyn just talks trash, as she's sweeping up

Am F C G
There's a thin dark cloud in the evening air
Am F C G
After every sunny day
Am F C
There's a bum who lives in the parking lot
G G G
Wash the windows just to say hey.

(C F Am G)
(C F Am G)
(C F Am G)
(C F Am G)

F C
All the tables nice and clean
F C
Evelyn's asleep
F C
On the grave yard shift again
G
Selling gasoline
F C
Selling gasoline

Acordes

