

Gregory Alan Isakov - Words

Tom: C

Intro: Gb Gbm Db
Gb Gbm Db Eb7
Gb Gbm Db

Bbm Ab Gb Db Ab
Words mean more at night
Bbm Ab Gb
Like a song
Gb Gbm Db Eb7
And did you ever notice
Gb Gbm Db
The way light means more than it did all day long

Bbm Ab Gb Db Ab
Words mean more at night
Bbm Ab Gb
Light means more
Gb Gbm Db Eb7
Like your hair and your face and your smile
Gb Gbm Db
And our bed and the dress that you wore

(Gb Gbm Db)

Gb Gbm Db
So I'll send you my words
Gb Gbm Db
From the corners of my room
Gb Gbm Db Eb7
And though I write them by the light of day
Gb Gbm Db
Please read them by the light of the moon

(Gb Gbm Db)

Bbm Ab Gb Db Ab
And I wish I could leave my bones
Bbm Ab Gb
And my skin
Gb Gbm Db Eb7
And float over the tired, tired sea
Gb Gbm Db
So that I could see you again

(Gb Gbm Db)

Bbm Ab Gb Db Ab
Maybe you would leave too
Bbm Ab Gb
And we'd blindly pass each other
Gb Gbm Db Eb7
Floating over the ocean blue
Gb Gbm Db
Just to find the warm bed of our lover

(Gb Gbm Db)
(Gb Gbm Db Eb7)
(Gb Gbm Db)

Gb Gbm Db
And I'll send you my words
Gb Gbm Db
From the corners of my room
Gb Gbm Db Eb7
And though I write them by the light of day
Gb Gbm Db
Please read them by the light of the moon
Gb Gbm Db
Please read them by the light of the moon
Gb Gbm Db
Please read them by the light of the moon
