

Grenade - Walk On Glass

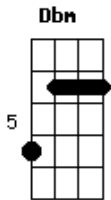

tom:
 You're so far away and I will get high
 Cause I need someone to say
 It is feeling that I am giving up this life, cause I will
 So I am bleeding because I need some pain
 Well, you say that, cause you need the same
 And I could give you some but it's time to go
 Bending, landing, trying to reach the place
 Where the shining is preaching to the snakes
 And I could hear you calling me to know

That you tried, even faked
 So days could be hours yesterday
 Wake up, walk on glass
 To feel you're dead, and I can't hold you
 Now run, it is a bet
 I'm the last, and I can't hold you
 I can't hold you
 I can't hold you
