                                                                I don't know why I don't know why
I've got a feeling inside of me
                                                                Special things she's got for me
Its gotta stav its gotta some wav stav
                                                                I've got a new rose I've got a gun
I don't know why I don't know why
                                                                Yeah I knew that I always would
Special things she's got for me
                                                                Riff 2
                                                                I cant stop to mess around
I've got a new rose I've got a gun
                                                                I've got a brand new rose in town
Yeah I knew that I always would
I cant stop to mess around

See the sun see the sun n the sky
                                                                So here it is....enjoy..... any comments...
Forget the rose and the rides
                                                                New Rose
Don't you run away that way
                                                                Guns N' Roses
                                                                The spaghetti incident?
I'm coming back another day
                                                                Chords by:

                                                                Intro: [D B E A]
Riff 2
                                                                      [Gb Ab E] x 2
I've got a new rose I've got a gun
                                                                I got a feeling inside of me.
Yeah I knew that I always would it's kind of strange like storme sea,
I cant stop to mess around
                                                                I don't know why, I don't Konw why,
I've got a brand new rose in town
                                                                Iguess these things have got to be [Gb Ab E] I've got a new rose, I got her god,
                                                                [Gb Ab E] guess I knew that I always good,
In this next part play chord B, right after the lyrics end [Gb Ab E] I can't stop this mess around, play what is tabbed below the lyric line.....
                                                                [Gb Ab E] I got a brand new rose in town
I never thought this would happen to me
                                                                See the sun, see the sun, it shines don't get too close or it'll burn your eyes,
                                                                don't you run away that way
                                                                you can come back another day
On the same machine
                                                                А В
