Gustavo Bertoni - Midnight Train

Tom: C

```
   C                    Am                    Em
Girl, you know I've waited for this day
F                                  Dm
Am            G
I was stuck on a puzzle, I drowned in the pouring rain
C                                Am
Em
You reached out to me, you showed me the way
F                           Dm
Am            G
Your fears, like mine, they took the midnight train

C     Am     Em    F     Dm     Am

C                  Am                                Em
Now so much of me is in your hands
F                      Dm
Am            G
And my burden's is yours to hold, as yours is mine

F
Call for me, my lover
Ab7
When your nights are gone astray

Am                            C
F
Every now and then we'll need a savior
Dm                      C                          G
Every now and then we'll need a hand
Am                            C
F
When you feel your bedroom walls a'crumbling
Dm                      C                          G
Don't you dare to feel that you're alone, no

C     Am     Em    F     Dm     Am

C                                Am
Em
You've been there where light seems faraway
F                        Dm
Am            G
Your shadow behind me but I couldn't see
C                              Am
Em
Reaching out for something we don't know
F                        Dm
Am            G
Holding on to what we still don't have

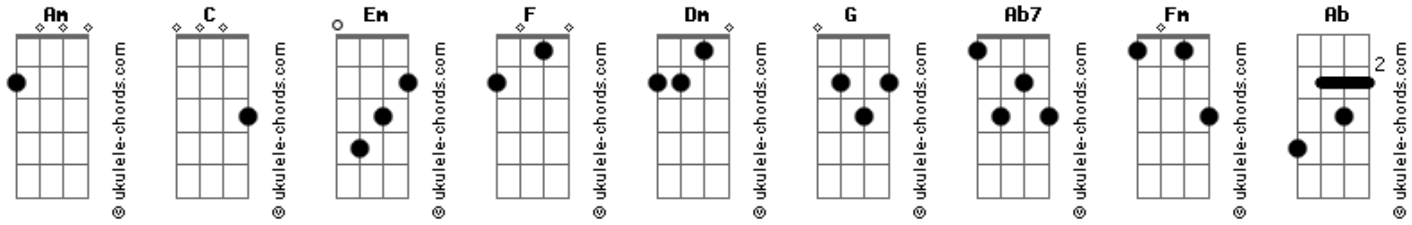
F
Call for me, my lover
Ab7
When your nights are gone astray

Am                             C
F
Every now and then we'll need a savior
Dm                          C                              G
Every now and then we'll need a hand
Am                             C
F
When you feel your bedroom walls a'crumbling
Dm                          C                              G
Don't you dare to feel that you're alone, no

F                                Fm                                C
I guess we found each other in the dark
Am                          Am                                F
I guess we found each other in the dark
Ab
I guess we found each other

C                        Am                                Em
Girl, you know I've waited for this day
```

Acordes



Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br