

Hailee Steinfeld - Man Up

tom:

Man up (man up), yeah

Little boy, won't you man up?

Man up (man up), yeah

Little boy, won't you man up??(Okay)

[Primeira Parte]

My brother hates you, my mother?hates you

My father and sister, too

Wait, I don't even have a sister

But if I did, she'd hate you

Everything is in past tense

'Cause we're definitely more than through

And I'm running, running, running, running

Out of ways to get through to you

[Pré-Refrão]

I think it's cute that

Look me in the eyes, won't do that (woo)

Six knives in my back

Tell me why you would do that (do that)

Sun goes down, different phase

Didn't think I'd learn her name

Gave you every bit of trust

I just can't believe you'd abuse that

[Refrão]

Man up, man up (yeah)

Little boy, won't you man up?

Man up, man up (yeah)

Little boy, won't you man up?

All of these tantrums

They won't win me back, love

Just be a man, love

And I don't mean society's version

I just mean be a better person (yep)

For once, man up (okay)

[Segunda Parte]

If you would've taken accountability

Then you'd still be holding my hand

Maybe not as tight

But at least maybe, maybe you'd have a chance

I don't even wanna keep talking about this, so I'll just stop

Sike, thought I was done, but I'm not (done, but I'm not)

[Pré-Refrão]

I think it's cute that

Look me in the eyes, won't do that (do that)

Six knives in my back

Tell me why you would do that

[Refrão]

Man up, man up (yeah)

Little boy, won't you man up?

Man up, man up (yeah)

Little boy, won't you man up?

All of these tantrums

They won't win me back, love

Just be a man, love

And I don't mean society's version

I just mean, be a better person

For once, man up (okay)

[Ponte]

Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah (ah, ah, ah)

Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah (ah, ah, ah, oh yeah)

[Refrão]

Man up, man up (yeah)

Little boy, won't you man up? (Won't you man up?)

Man up, man up (oh, man up, yeah)

Little boy, won't you man up?

All of these tantrums

They won't win me back, love

Just be a man, love

And I don't mean society's version

I just mean, be a better person (yep)

For once, man up (okay), yeah

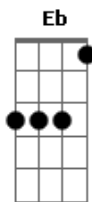

(Ah, ah, ah)

Just be a man, you baby (ah, ah)

I'm done (okay)
