

Haley Reinhart - Honey, There's The Door

Tom: G

[Primeira Parte]

Honey, come on over here and sit down real nice and close
 Don't you worry, just wanna get a better look at ya
 Not that you didn't look good before
 I'm gonna lay down my cards
 Don't take this too hard
 I don't want normal 'cause that's been done
 I need that up and about
 That classic Casanova kinda stuff

[Refrão]

You better tell me that you love me
 Tell me that you need me
 Treat me like I'm everything you want and more
 Tell me that I'm funny and sexy
 If you don't, then, honey, there's the door
 You better tell me that I sparkle
 That my eyes are diamonds
 Tell me I remind you of Marilyn Monroe
 Treat me like the star of your show
 If you don't, well, honey, there's the door

[Segunda Parte]

Phew, that I got that off my chest
 Don't hold it against me
 I gotta give it to you straight

'Cause that's what I do best
 Baby, tell me, where are you taking me next?
 Is it Greece or in Rome? A vacation at home?
 I don't want normal 'cause that's been done
 I need that up and about
 That classic Casanova kinda stuff

[Refrão]

You better tell me that you love me
 Tell me that you need me
 Treat me like I'm everything you want and more
 Tell me that I'm funny and sexy
 If you don't, then, honey, there's the door
 You better tell me that I sparkle
 That my eyes are diamonds
 Tell me I remind you of Bridget Bardot
 Treat me like the star of your show
 If you don't, well, honey, there's the door
 You better tell me that you love me
 Tell me that you need me
 Treat me like I'm everything you want and more
 Tell me that I'm funny and sexy
 If you don't, then, honey, there's the door
 You better tell me that I sparkle
 That my eyes are diamonds
 Tell me I remind you of Marilyn Monroe
 Treat me like the star of your show
 If you don't, well, honey, there's the door
