Intro: Bm G A
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah
Bm G A

[Primeira Parte]

Bm
My body carries sadness
G A
That my brain cannot yet see
Bm
And I've been holding on to memories
G A
In my stomach and my teeth
Bm
And both my shoulders have been burdened
G A
By the weight of my mistakes
Bm
And every time you lean in closer
G A
Both my knees can't help but shake

[Pré-Refrão]

A
And I think you're a danger to my health, or so it seems

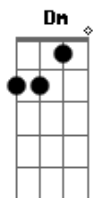

[Refrão]

D
Is it love or a panic attack?
G Bm
Is a heavy heart too much to hold?
A
I don't know, but it's late
D
So I'm taking you home
Is it love or a panic attack?
G Bm
Would you mind if I asked you on the phone?
A
I don't know, but it's late
Bm
So I'm taking you home
G A
Mm-mm

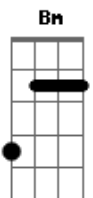

[Segunda Parte]

Bm
I had to call the doctor
G A
Left a note on his machine
Bm
Because I tripped when we went walking
G A
And I felt it in my spleen
Bm
Now I think I need a blood test
G A

[Ponte]

My spirit has been broken
G Bm
My optimism's getting sore
And I would love to love you
G A
But my body's keepin' score
And I don't know if I can see you anymore

[Refrão]

D
Is it love, is it love

(Is it love, is it love, is it love?)

Is it love, is it love (Is it love, is it love?)

Is it love or a panic attack?
