Halsey - Strangers (feat. Lauren Jauregui)

That's something, yeah
                                                               Refrão:
A Dbm B Gbm Abm
                                                               You said that we're not lovers
Verso 1:
                                                                         Gbm
                                                               We're just strangers
                          Dbm
She doesn't kiss me on the mouth anymore
                                                               With the same damn hunger
Cause it's more intimate than she thinks we should get
                                                               To be touched, to be loved, to feel anything at all
                          Dbm
She doesn't look me in the eyes anymore
                                                                        Dbm
                                                               We're not lovers
Too scared of what she'll see
                                                                         Gbm
                                                               We're just strangers
Somebody holding me
                                                               With the same damn hunger
Pré-Refrão:
                                                                                                   Gbm
                                                               To be touched, to be loved, to feel anything at all
When I wake up all alone and I'm thinking of your skin
I remember, I remember what you told me
                                                               I miss the mornings with you laying in my bed
                                                               I miss the memories replaying in my head
You said that we're not lovers
                                                               I miss the thought of a forever, you and me
          Gbm
We're just strangers
                                                               But all you're missing is my body
With the same damn hunger
                                                               Refrão:
                                   Gbm
To be touched, to be loved, to feel anything at all
                                                               You said that we're not lovers
                                                                        Gbm
We're not lovers
                                                               We're just strangers
          Gbm
We're just strangers
                                                               With the same damn hunger
With the same damn hunger
                                                               To be touched, to be loved, to feel anything at all
To be touched, to be loved, to feel anything at all
                                                               We're not lovers
                                                                         Ghm
                                                               We're just strangers
Verso 2:
She doesn't call me on the phone anymore
                                                               With the same damn hunger
                      Gbm
She's never listening, she says it's innocent
                                                               To be touched, to be loved, to feel anything at all
                       Dbm
She doesn't let me have control anymore
                                                               Final:
                           Gbm
I must have crossed a line, I must have lost my mind
                                                                    To feel anything at all
                                                                      Gbm
                                                               To feel anything at all
Pré-Refrão:
                  Dbm
When I wake up all alone and I'm thinking of your skin
                                                               ( A Dbm B Gbm Abm )
