

Hamilton - Burn

```
Tom: D
                                                                 Do you know what Angelica said
I saved every letter you wrote me D
                                                                 When she read what you'd done?
From the moment I read them
I knew you were mine
                                                                  "You have married an Icarus
You said you were mine
                                                                 He has flown too close to the sun"
           G
I thought you were mine
                                                                 You and your words, obsessed with your legacy
Do you know what Angelica said
                                                                  Your sentences border on senseless
                                                                  Em Bm
When we saw your first letter arrive?
                                                                 And you are paranoid in every paragraph
She said
                                                                 How they perceive you
                                                                 You, you, you
"Be careful with that one, love
                                                                      Bm
                                                                 I'm erasing myself from the narrative \ensuremath{\text{G}}
He will do what it takes to survive"
                                                                  Let future historians wonder how Eliza
You and your words flooded my senses
                                                                 Reacted when you broke her heart
Your sentences left me defenseless Em Bm Gb
                                                                 You have torn it all apart
You built me palaces out of paragraphs

G

D

Em
                                                                 I am watching it
You built cathedrals
                                                                 D Bm Gbm Gb G
                                                                 Burn
D Bm Gbm Gbm Gb G
I'm re-reading the letters you wrote me \begin{tabular}{c} \end{tabular}
                                                                 Watching it burn
\ensuremath{\mathrm{I'm}} searching and scanning for answers
  Em Bm
                                                                 The world has no right to my heart \frac{1}{D}
In every line
For some kind of sign
                                                                 The world has no place in our bed
                                                                  They don't get to know what I said
And when you were mine
The world seemed to
                                                                  I'm burning the memories
                                                                           D
                                                                 Burning the letters that might have redeemed you \begin{tabular}{c|c} G & A & D \end{tabular}
D Bm Gbm Gb G
                                                                  You forfeit all rights to my heart
D Bm Gbm Gbm Gb G
                                                                  You forfeit the place in our bed
                                                                         Bm
You published the letters she wrote you
                                                                 You'll sleep in your office instead
A D
                                                                 With only the memories
You told the whole world how you brought
                                                                            D D D G
         Em Bm
This girl into our bed
                                                                  Of when you were mine
In clearing your name, you have ruined our lives
                                                                                  Bm Gb G D Em Bm
                                                                  I hope that you burn
```

Acordes

