

Hanson - Penny and Me

Tom: A

[Intro:] A A A E E D

A E
Cigars in the summertime under the sky by the light
D
I can feel you read my mind
A E
I can see it in your eyes under the moon as it plays
Like music every line
A E
There's a rug with bleeding dye under the fan in the room
D A
Where the passions burning high by the chair
E
With the leopard skin under the light
D A A E E D
It's always Penny and me tonight

On the plane step up with both my feet
Riding in seat number 3 on a flight to NYC
Got my bean in a coffee cup next to my seat
Catch the view and another good book to read
Sending me home on the friendly skies
Missing her eyes
It's always Penny and me tonight

A E D A
Cause Penny and me like to roll the windows down
Gbm E A
Turn the radio up, push the pedal to the ground
E D E
And Penny and me like to gaze at starry skies
D
Close our eyes pretend to fly
E A A A E E D
It's always Penny and me tonight

Staring at a million city lights
But it's still Penny and I all alone beneath the sky
Feel the wind brushing slowly by
If I could soar I'd try to take these wings and fly
A E
Away to where the leaves turn red
D E
But no matter where I am instead

D Bm
Singing along to feeling alright
Dbm D
We'll make it by in the pink moonlight
E
It's always Penny and me tonight

A E D A
Cause Penny and me like to roll the windows down
Gbm E A
Turn the radio up, push the pedal to the ground
And Penny and me like to gaze at starry skies
D
Close our eyes pretend to fly
E A A A E E D
It's always Penny and me tonight
Gbm
Penny likes to get away and drown her pain in lemonade Dbm
Db7 Gbm Gbm

Penny dreams of rainy days and nights up late by the fireplace
E A A A E E D
And aimless conversations about the better days

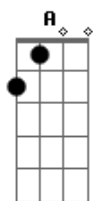

A E D Bm
Singing along to feeling alright, yeah
Dbm D
We'll make it by in the pink moonlight
E

It's always Penny and me tonight
A E D A
Cause Penny and me like to roll the windows down
Gbm E A
Turn the radio up, push the pedal to the ground
And Penny and me like to gaze at starry skies
D
Close our eyes pretend to fly
E A A A E E D
It's always Penny and me tonight

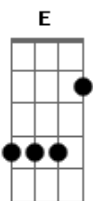

A A A E E D
Penny and me tonight (3X)

FINAL: Gbm E A
