

Hateen - Give Me a Call

```
Tom: B
  (intro) B
 Please talk to me we must not fight
       Gb
 I feel so sad when you treat me bad separation sounds like a bad dream
 I don't want it to happen if that's what it seems We'll make it through since I love you
 I hear your voice calling me now
 I don't want it to happen
 I don't want it to happen
 Do you want it to happen?
 Well I guess you don't
 So give me a call and make me smile
          Gb
 Forgive me now and then somehow
     Gb
 I wanna be just where you are
 Please make me be just where you are
 So give me a call and make me smile \,
(solo 2x) B Gb E Gb
                                             Gb
```

B Gb E Gb Please take care of this heart of mine

Acordes

```
I feel so sad when you treat {\tt me} bad
                                                                                        Gb
             This conversation could be a great chance
               I feel like if we're two angels we can even dance
               We'll make it through since \mathbf{I}_{\underline{\phantom{a}}} love you
                                                                               Gb
                 I hear your voice calling me now
               I don't want it to happen % \left\{ 1,2,...,n\right\}
               Do you want it to happen? (riff 1)
               I don't want it to happen
               Well I guess you don't
              So give me a call and make me smile
                                                                                      Gb
              Forgive me now and then somehow
                                                      Gb
              I wanna be just where you are  \\
              Please make me be just where you are
                                         Gb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Gb
               So give me a call and make me smile
                                                         And make me smile again
B Gb E
                                                          Please make me smile again
              I wanna be just where you are
              Please make me be just where you are
                                                     Gb
              So give me a call and make me smile % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left(
                                                          Gb
              Make me smile and give me a call
  (riff 1)
```