

Hayley Williams - Dream Girl In Shibuya

Under fluorescent lights (ah-ah-ah)
                tom:
Every now and then in a far off land
Familiar but foreign, a liminal feeling
I know you know me now like the back of your hand
But can I still get your heart reeling?
Should've stayed a mystery
Sipping on Japanese whiskey
In the lobby bar (ah-ah-ah)
I could say I gotta leave
But let's not let that come between us
Would it make you want me more?
I wait for you (in seven-two-three-oh)
In the hotel room (I can still be your)
Dream girl come true (come on in)
     F Dm C
In Shibuya
Just my silhouette pressed against this view (get to the seventh floor)
I wonder do you miss when having me felt brand new? (Get to my Dream girl come true (come on in)
An elevator ride, slowest of your life (get to the seventh
Can you feel how your heart's beating?
Hate that you've already seen
                                                                In Shibuya
Every bad side of me

But I went to Takeshita Street Came back more kawaii We could pretend it's our first time I wait for you (in seven-two-three-oh) In the hotel room (I can still be your) Dream girl come true (come on in) F Dm C In Shibuya Get to the seventh floor Get underneath me I'm always waiting for a Knock on my door, baby Now hold me closer Watching an anime Can always come here Could always just stay I wait for you (in seven-two-three-oh) In the hotel room (I can still be your) In Shibuya I wait for you (in seven-two-three-oh) In the hotel room (I can still be your) Dream girl come true (come on in) F Dm C
