

Heitor Vallim - Crashing Waves

Tom: C

Intro: C E7 Am F

C E7 Am F
The lighthouse that guide us

C E7
Is falling down

Am F
To teach us how to sail

C E7 Am F
In the streets I'll take every rose for you
C E7 Am F
That in the gray has died

C E7 Am F
A crazy wild man, who lives in myself
C E7 Am G
Started to talk with me, you have to be yourself

F C
Because this game, we created
E7 Am
And my heart will never blame her
F C G
For every single day that I'll be alive

F C
And the story can't be ended
E7 Am
With a fire without meaning
F C G
Because I love you and you know it's not a lie

( C E7 Am F )

C E7 Am F
Crashing waves, flowers in her home

C E7 Am F
I have long hair, but I'm not young

C E7 Am F
This crazy train in which you came

C E7 Am G

And all my blackbirds just haven't come

(I can't stay honey)

F C
Because this game, we created

E7 Am
And my heart will never blame her

F C G
For every single day that I'll be alive

F C
And the story can't be ended

E7 Am
With a fire without meaning

F C G
Because I love you and you know it's not a lie

Am G
And you saw your worst side

F
In the reflection of my eyes

C
The darkness from our mind

Am G
In the war that you want to stay

F
You rather kill yourself

C E7
Than just believe that you were already dead

F C
Because this game, we created

E7 Am
And my heart will never blame her

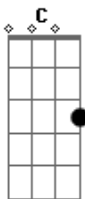

F C G
For every single day that I'll be alive

F C
And the story can't be ended

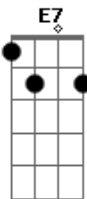

E7 Am
With a fire without meaning

F C G
Because I love you and you know it's not a lie
