Helloween - A Tale That Wasn't Right

```
And let's say it's just alright E Am tom:
                                                                  You won't sleep alone tonight
                Am
Intro: Am E Am F Dm Am E
             Am [Refrão]
                                                                  F G A
                                                                 In my heart
F A G
                                                                  In my soul
                                                                                 C Bb G
                                                                         F
                                                                  I really hate to pay this toll
                                                                  F G A
                                                                  Should be strong
                                                                  F A G
                                                                  Young and bold
                                                                                        Е
                                                                                              Α
                                                                        F
                                                                  But the only thing I feel is pain
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                  [Solo]
                                                                  [Tab - Solo]
         Am
                   F
Here I stand all alone
                         F
        Am
Have my mind turned to stone
        Dm
                            Am
Have my heart filled up with ice

E Am (G)

To avoid it's breakin' twice
                                                                  [Parte 3 De 4]
   Am Е
Thanks to you, my dear old friend
Am F
But you can't help, this is the end
                                                                  [Refrão Final]
    Dm Am
                                                                   F G A
Of a tale that wasn't right
                                                                  With my heart
F A G
     E Am
I won't have no sleep tonight
                                                                  With my soul
                                                                                   C Bb G
[Refrão]
                                                                          F
                                                                  Some guys cry you bought and so-ld
F G A
F G A
In my heart
F A G
                                                                  They've been strong
                                                                  FGA
In my soul
F
                                                                  Young and bold
              C Bb G
                                                                        F
                                                                                                 Е
I really hate to pay this toll F = G = A
                                                                  And they say, play this song again
                                                                  F G A
Should be strong
                                                                  In my heart
F A G
F A G
Young and bold
                                                                  In my soul
  F
                   E
                          Α
But the only thing I feel is pain
                                                                                 C Bb G
                                                                          F
                                                                  I really hate to pay this toll
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                  F G A
                                                                  Should be strong
                                                                  FAG
                     F
                                                                  Young and bold
         Am
Trustin' in my confidence
                                                                         F
                                                                                        F
                                                                                               Α
          Dm
                           Am
                                                                  But the only thing I feel is pain
Acordes
                    Ε
                                                Dn
                                       ukulele-chords.com
                                                                   ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                 ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                               ukulele-chords.com
            ukulele-chords.com
                          Jkulele-chords.com
                                                     ukulele-chords.com
```

т

BЬ

ukulele-chords.com