I?ve been looking for someone like you for a while

I?m in love when you sleep Beautiful as it can be

The way that you love , so perfect for me

You?re all that I need, so sweet !

Is it so hard to believe that I think It?s forever and that?s all that matters

It has never been so easy for me

To share the world with someone by my side

I?ve been drifting in vain , in this big lonely sea

I?m so sorry if sometimes I need a moment to cool down
