

Henry Moodie - Drunk Text

tom:

C

5Th of November C

When I walked you home Em

That's when I nearly said it Am

But then said "Forget it, you fool" F

Do you remember? C

You probably don't Em

'Cause the sparks in the sky Am

Took a hold of your eyes while we spoke F G

Yesterday, drank way too much

And stayed up too late Am

Started to write but I wanna say Dm

Deleted the message, but I still remember it said G

I wish I was who you drunk texted at midnight Em

Wish I was the reason you stay up 'til 3 Dm

And you can't fall asleep

F G

Waiting for me to reply

C

I wish I was more than just someone you walk by Em

Wish I wasn't scared to be honest and open Dm

Instead of just hoping

F Fm

You'd feel what I'm feeling inside

C

April the 7th

And nothing has changed Em

Am

It's hard to get by

F

When you're still on my mind every day

C

Sometimes I question

Em

If you feel the same?

Am

Do we make stupid jokes?

F G

Trying to hide that we're both too afraid to say

I wish I was who you drunk texted at midnight Em

Dm

Wish I was the reason you stay up 'til 3

And you can't fall asleep

F G

Waiting for me to reply

C

I wish I was more than just someone you walk by Em

Dm

Wish I wasn't scared to be honest and open

Instead of just hoping

F

You'd feel what I'm feeling inside

Dm

Oh, and here we go again

G

Destroy myself to keep my friend

Em

Hiding away 'cause I was afraid you'd say no F

Dm

I wonder if I cross your mind

G

Half as much as you do mine

Em

If I tell you the truth

What will I lose?

F Fm

I don't know

C

I wish I'd sent you that drunk text that midnight Em

Dm

I was just scared it would ruin our friendship

But I really meant it

F Fm

I wonder how you would reply
