

H.E.R. - Could've Been (feat. Bryson Tiller)

tom:
 Please, allow me to show you something

Somebody give me

[Primeira Parte]

Somebody give me
 Somebody tell me the answers

Me and you isn't the answer

Me and you isn't (no)

Maybe I'm tellin' myself that
 But there ain't nothin' that'll change that

What good would it be
 If I knew how you felt about me? (Yeah)

[Pré-Refrão]

It could've been right
 But I was wrong (yeah)
 Only think 'bout you when I'm alone
 The part of me that cared is almost gone
 And I know that I can't get caught up

[Refrão]

We could've been
 And we try to pretend
 Every now and again
 We don't dream about
 Don't think about what
 We could've been
 Though I'm holding it in
 'Cause I know in the end

You dream about

I think about what
 We could've been
 We could've been (yeah)

We could've (damn, yeah!)

[Segunda Parte]

Remember?
 Remember the night in Miami?

First time you put your arms around me
 I'm up reminiscin' (oh, yeah)

And thinking 'bout you isn't helping
 Thinking 'bout you doesn't tell me

What good it would do
 If I decide to face the truth

[Pré-Refrão]

It could've been right
 But I was wrong
 Only think 'bout you when I'm alone
 You only hit me up when she's not home
 And that's why I can't get caught up

[Refrão]

We could've been
 And we try to pretend
 Every now and again
 We don't dream about
 Don't think about what
 We could've been (oh, yeah)
 Though I'm holding it in
 'Cause I know in the end

You dream about

I think about what
 We could've been, we could've been
 We could've, we could've been
 What we could've been, we could've been
 (Gb7 D)

Yeah, (what) we could've been, no, ooh
 (Easy yourself)

[Terceira Parte]

Ayy
 What we could've been?
 What we should've been?
 If I wasn't, if I wasn't with somebody

If you gotta hide it
 What's the point of trying?

I ain't just your friend
 No, what's the point of lying?

Tryna sell a story ain't nobody buyin'
 Look me in my eyes, don't that feel nice?

Abm

Why should it end? Baby, I could've been

Eb7

I could've been him, more than your friend

D7

Just say where and when, where to make a trip
