

Hey Monday - Hangover

Tom: Gb

(com acordes na forma de E)
Capotraste na 2ª casa

A Dbm
Hit me out of nowhere like a car crash on the street,
A Dbm
Suddenly colliding into me,
A
Now I'm broken, bruised and beat up
Dbm
Tangled in my sheets,
A B
How can this feel so bad when you seemed so good for me?

E
Oh my god, what's wrong with my head?
B
Sweating with the chills, still in my bed,
Dbm A
Tell me how I'll ever make it through
E
It's the short hellos and the long goodbyes,
B
The shake in my lip from the look in your eyes
Dbm
Makes me wanna die,
A
I've got the worst hangover from you

A Dbm
Swimming in the deep and trying to keep from turning blue,
A Dbm
Danger, danger, hoping not to drown
(Somebody get me out of here)
A Dbm
Sinking in the quicksand just to walk right up to you
A B
You're so easy to pick up and so hard to put down

E
Oh my god, what's wrong with my head?
B
Sweating with the chills, still in my bed,
Dbm A
Tell me how I'll ever make it through
E
It's the short hellos and the long goodbyes,
B
The shake in my lip from the look in your eyes
Dbm
Makes me wanna die,
A
I've got the worst hangover from you

Gbm B A
All that I really wanted was a habit I could drop anytime that I wanted to,
Gbm B A
And what I really got was you
