Hillsong United - Healer

```
Tom: G
                                                            I believe You're my Healer
                                                                             D
                                                            Em
                                                                                  С
  (intro) G C Em C
                                                            I believe You are all I need
                                                            G
                                                                                     Fm
(verso 1)
                                                            I believe You're my Portion
                                                                                    D c9
                                                                                                  D
G
You hold my every moment
                                                            I believe You're more than enough for me
                       G
                                                                   D G
          D
   C
                                                            С
                                                           Jesus You're all I need
You calm my raging seas
G
           D
                   Em
You walk with me through fire
C D
                                                           Bridge: D C D
And heal all my disease
                                                                  DG
                                                            Fm
                                                           Nothing is impossible for You
Am G C
                                                            Em
                                                                  DG
I trust in You
Am C D
                                                           Nothing is impossible for You
                                                            Em DG GC
I trust in You
                                                           Nothing is impossible for You
                                                                     Em
                                                                                  D
G
                                                           You hold my world in Your hands
                   Em
```

Acordes

