My trust_is without borders
                           tom:
                                                              Let me walk upon the waters
            [Primeira Parte]
                                                              Wherever You would call me
 You call me out upon the waters
                                                                Take me deeper than
The great unknown where feet may fail
                                                              My feet could ever wander
 And there I find You in the mystery
                                                              And my faith will be made stronger
In oceans deep, my faith will stand
                                                              In the presence of my Savior
