

Hillsong United - Starts And Ends

tom: Intro: Bm D G My soul thirsts for things I can't explain Bm D G In my bones a beckoning to pray If my heart is a battleground

D

G

My defenses run both Ways The flesh is a beggar and thief G But there is a Spirit-man awakening me

Bm

D

G

When real life and peace won't make amends Bm When all these starts D Start feeling like these ends Like the world is unraveling And I'm bound to come undone Em. There is a Shepherd a Priest G. Em There is a Comforter who comforts me And my soul finds rest G. Where it makes no sense There the blood sets me free All my old regrets G All my brokenness All my failures redeemed And it feels like grace G Where I stacked my shame There the cross stands for me Α All the things I've done

All my dead ends redeemed And it looks like hope Where my heart was broke And His heart broke for me Lay your burden down upon Down upon Him Lay your burden down Jesus my rest in peace G My reconciler You're my every good thing I surrender all All I'm living for Em A. You're my every good thing You're my amnesty You're my split wide sea Em A D You're my every good thing Α All my days and nights You're my death to life You're the wonder I breathe You're my can't explain First and last refrain Em A D You're my every good thing

Acordes

